

{comments off}

The American Chamber of Commerce in Cameroon is a voluntary association of the companies and individuals doing business in Cameroon. Its primary objective is to advance the development of trade, commerce, and investment between the United States of America and Republic of Cameroon. It pursues policy initiatives at the highest government and business levels and provides valuable advocacy, information, networking, and business support services.

With over 70 members, at present, Amcham Cameroon comprises businesses of all sizes and sectors from multinationals and large corporations to personalized operations. The leadership is equally diverse with prominent and highly regarded corporate and small business leaders from all sectors serving on the Board.

Amcham Cameroon's members meet, regularly, every month to discuss and interact on the topics of current significance to conducting business in or with Cameroon and USA. Besides, Amcham Cameroon maintains relations with the Chamber of the Commerce of the United States, business chambers and associations in Cameroon, and developmental and commercial institutions with an interest in Cameroon.

Therefore Amcham Cameroon is an extremely effective resource for establishing business connections in Cameroon and staying tuned to a dynamic and fast developing economy.